

PRIZE FIGHTING UNDER THE BAN

Bout Proposed by Legion Is Called Off by Attorney

LAW FORBIDS EVENT

Fisticuffs Are Popular Here But Fans Will Have to Go Without Show

Special to The World.
TULSA, June 21.—That prize fighting, which is a violation of law though long tolerated, shall cease in Oklahoma county is apparently the decision of County Attorney William J. Mason and other officials. When advertising matter was discussed announcing a contest of that character in this city Monday afternoon, the opinion of the local post of the American legion, he filed a petition with District Judge J. C. Whiting and secured an injunction restraining the promoters from carrying out their design.
The exhibition have been popular in this city for some time, and have been largely attended, and generally profitable to the promoters. The law, however, is against them, and the law expressly declares that any person who engages in prize fighting, or promotes or attempts to promote the same, is guilty of a crime, and is liable to a fine of $500, or imprisonment, or both.
Whether or not legal proceedings will be taken against all persons connected with this proposed fight remains to be determined.

Harvest Nearly Over.

Special to The World.
TULSA, June 21.—The middle of the week will see the harvest work nearly over in this section of the state. Data are being collected by the U. S. bureau estimating the grain yield around 25 to 30 bushels to the acre. Wheat will probably be as good as in at first thought, and will average about 22 bushels to the acre. Corn is in very good shape.

Farm Brewery Raided.

Special to The World.
TULSA, June 21.—A real brewery was found in a raid on a farm near the refinery Friday. Among the articles captured were several quarts of sugar, hops, boxes of yeast and 500 beer bottles. Sixty gallons of the liquor was found. Five men were arrested at the place but no one will claim ownership of the materials found.

Made a Torch of Himself.

Special to The World.
TULSA, June 21.—Striking a match on his clothing, which were saturated with gasoline, almost caused the death of Cliff Ferguson, son of J. C. Ferguson, proprietor of a large automobile establishment here. The flames, which enveloped Ferguson, were extinguished by L. E. Murrell, a night watchman employed at the residence. Ferguson is recovering from his wounds.

That Worm in Corn Field.

Special to The World.
TULSA, June 21.—John J. Creed, special state officer, accompanied by Constable M. C. Martin, made a raid on Sand creek, south of Bartlesville Monday afternoon and seized a gallon of corn whisky and the worm used in a still. The worm was found hidden in a corn field about 200 yards from the place where the whisky was concealed.

Park in Middle of Street.

Special to The World.
TULSA, June 21.—Parking space is a premium and cars have run out. A special marked zone in the center of three blocks leaving the business section has been made and cars will now be parked in the center of the street.

Oiling Many Streets.

Special to The World.
TULSA, June 21.—Marshall Whittaker and his force have just finished oiling 25 blocks of streets, nine of these are in the business section and 16 in the residential section of the city. Many of the streets have been dragged since the oil was applied and are now in first-class condition.

Drowned in Cabin Creek.

Special to The World.
TULSA, June 21.—John Campbell, a 15-year-old youth, was drowned Sunday afternoon while swimming in Cabin creek with some boy friends about 10 miles southwest of here. The body was taken in a truck to the Cain, where he had been living with his grandmother, Mrs. John Tetter.

Special to The World.
TULSA, June 21.—County Commissioner Wells has secured for Oklahoma county a big government tractor. These tractors belong to the government and can only be secured by counties having federal aid on bonded roads.

Made Trucks for Fresh Air.

Special to The World.
TULSA, June 21.—A drum of kerosene exploded at the American legion building, causing no external damage, but a rush was made for exits to escape the fumes.

Shamming in Society

How many women of your acquaintance are using heavy powders and trying to cover up freckles and red complexion. Can you explain why they will practice this sham when they can quickly and cheaply wash their skin of all dirt, dandruff and impurities with Golden Venus or Blenheim Bleach. Wouldn't it be a relief to their conscience to know that they were no longer shamming, and wouldn't their complexion in themselves increase the force of their personal charm? If you have a friend who is shamming, why not suggest Golden Venus or Blenheim Bleach to her. One trial will quickly bleach out freckles, tan, pimples, red patches, liver blotches, or blackheads without the slightest injury to the most delicate skin. 31 South Main—by mail $1.50.

Insurance Men Allege Connivance in Stolen Cars to Get Insurance

Special to The World.
PAWBUKA, June 21.—Insurance agents here have been advised of a nation-wide ruing wherein owners will be able to collect only three-fourths of the value of their cars when stolen. Automobile thieves, hundreds of thousands, have been named where motorists have consented to have their cars stolen and when the theft is reported to the insurance company the latter immediately offers a reward for the return of the car.
Shady officers have also joined the conspiracy to find the car. The reward and split stolen with the owners. To combat this a majority of the insurance companies of the country have arranged to offer a reward incentive only for the recovery of the car and the apprehension of the thief, and no reward will be offered for the recovery of the car only.

WORK ON ROAD AND STREETS

Hard Surface to Paving and Many Other Projects On.

PAWBUKA, June 21.—Work has begun simultaneously on the six miles of hard surface road between Pawbuka and Peshing, which will employ several hundred men, and on the repaving of several streets and the oiling of the city streets. The entire block street and Killekah avenue from Main to Eighth will be repaved with asphalt, and 15 blocks of streets will be oiled by order of Mayor Whiting.
In addition to this a conference between a committee of the chambers of commerce and the city commission considered the project of new paving on Lynn avenue from Main street to Sixteenth, paving the high school, also on Killekah over the hill to the terminus of Grandview avenue, with improvements being made on Grandview, bordering on the courthouse grounds.

IDENTIFIED RUINS OF CAR

Had Been Stripped of Everything Usable and Then Set Afire.

PAWBUKA, June 21.—Clyde Maxwell of Bartlesville was here Friday and identified as his the ruins of a big Studebaker six automobile found two weeks ago in some brush on the public road near the home of William Fritchard in the southwest corner of this county. He missed his car several weeks ago.
The car had been stripped of batteries and all other accessories and was so that what is left of it is worthless. It is said that the car was insured for $2,000.

ROAD BOOSTERS FORM SOCIETY

Chief Booster Is Made President of the Association

Special to The World.
BARTLESVILLE, June 21.—"Good roads for Washington county" is the motto that has been adopted by the Washington County Good Roads association, which was organized here today. The meeting was called by Tom Pitt of Coalmine, one of the foremost advocates of good roads in the county, and the members in attendance at the meeting showed their approval of his work in electing him president of the association. Other officers elected were: Bert Gaddis, Bartlesville, treasurer; E. L. George, Bartlesville, secretary. The following directors were elected: Joe C. Shoen, Copan; Earl Woodward, Jewell; J. D. White, Veral; J. M. Greenwood, Bartlesville; A. L. Hogue, Copan; John H. Campbell, Bartlesville.
The purpose of the association is to co-operate with the members of the county commission in promoting the building of good roads in Washington county. Messrs. Gaddis, Hogue and Campbell are members of the county commission who will be in office after July 1. The fee for association membership is $1 a year, which will be used for such advertising purposes as the future may require.

Forbidden Roping Contests.

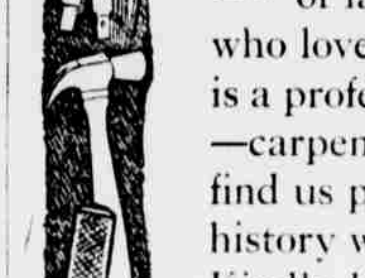

Special to The World.
PONCA CITY, June 21.—Roping contests of all kinds are barred in Kay county henceforward under an ultimatum just issued by Sheriff Dan Bain, although bulldogging will be allowed. Bain noted upon instructions received from state authorities that it is unlawful to hold such contests. The sheriff has stopped a roundup that was to have been held at Blackwell the past week, and his ultimatum also stops a Moose lodge roundup here on July 4.
